Full of Life
By Fr. Mario Valencia

I remember when I was a seminarian and after an Easter retreat, we thanked God for life, friendship, our vocation, his mercy and infinite goodness and we contemplated how in His Divine Providence God always provides what we need for our salvation. I have always said that I do not believe in coincidences, but in God-cidences. God arranges everything well and he knows what is best for everyone. During this Easter season and remembering Psalm 126:6 which says that “those who go forth weeping, carrying sacks of seed, Will return with cries of joy, carrying their bundled sheaves,” my heart is filled with joy and my mind with light and understanding, as we contemplate how all our efforts and sacrifices are somehow crowned at this time. Psalm 126 not only illuminates the daily work that seeks daily sustenance, and we find its reward is harvest time, but it also reminds us of the encounter of the one who touches us along the way and who sows his seed, generating fruits of eternity in our lives. Full of hope, happiness, and joy in this our Easter, we know we are full of His Divine presence, of His Divine Mercy, but not as a mere memory that happened, but as a reality that acts with power generating the fruits of our salvation every day. Christ has taught us the way: “per cruzem ad luzem – through the cross to the light”, which reveals our own nature. That is why, full of joy and enlightened with the truth in Christ Jesus, today we enjoy life and life in abundance (cf. Jn. 10:10). Which drives us even amid difficulties and storms to generate fruits of peace and joy until we finally reach our eternal Easter. For this reason, we must open our eyes, we must be always attentive to contemplate and experience all these fruits that we presently taste as proof of eternity in each encounter with the true, living Risen Christ: “Thank you with all my heart because this is how you allow us, in this world, take part in the heavenly goods” (O.d.C. II.C).

You are coordinately invited to participate of this mass and be witness of the reaffirmation of faith of these young people, who have prepared for two years to receive their Sacrament of Confirmation. Let us pray for them, for their parents, their godparents and their teachers, so that the Holy Spirit fills their hearts with the fire of his love.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, eternal Shepherd, in your kindness look with mercy on your beloved flock. We cry out to you as orphans: Lord, grant us vocations! Call many of our young people to be holy priests and consecrated men and women. We ask you this through the intercession of Mary, your tender, holy Mother. Lord Jesus, grant to the diocese of Santa Rosa priests and consecrated persons after your own heart!

Oración por las vocaciones

¡Oh Jesús, Pastor eterno de las almas! Dígnate mirar con ojos de misericordia a esta porción de tu grey amada. Señor, gemimos en la orfandad. Danos vocaciones, danos sacerdotes, religiosos y almas consagradas santos. Te lo pedimos por la inmaculada Virgen María de Guadalupe, tu dulce y Santa Madre. ¡Oh Jesús da a la diócesis de Santa Rosa sacerdotes, religiosos y almas consagradas según tu corazón! Amén.
